Habitat for Humanity of Elkhart County’s Promise

Philanthropy is based on voluntary action for the common good. It is a tradition of giving and sharing that is primary to the quality of life. Therefore, to ensure that philanthropy merits the respect and trust of the general public and that all Donors and prospective Donors can have complete confidence in the non-for-profit organizations and causes they are asked to support, we declare that all Donors have these rights:

Habitat for Humanity of Elkhart County promises to keep you informed about the impact of your gift.

Habitat for Humanity of Elkhart County also promises the following:

- To share the identity of those serving on Habitat for Humanity of Elkhart County’s board of directors.
- To request Habitat for Humanity of Elkhart County’s most recent financial statements.
- Be assured your gift will be used for the purpose it was given.
- Receive appropriate acknowledgment and recognition.
- Be assured that information about your donation is handled with respect and with confidentiality to the extent of the law.
- Expect all relationships with individuals representing Habitat will be professional in nature.
- Feel free to ask questions when making a donation or about past contributions and to receive prompt, truthful, and forthright answers.

Any contributions received in excess of the capital campaign goal will be used as designated or assigned on a pro rata basis to the four campaign uses.
